

A motorcycle-themed room, left, at the Featherbed Railroad Bed and Breakfast in Upper Lake includes a miniature replica Harley-Davidson, top, as part of the decor. Each of the nine repurposed vintage cabooses, above, has a unique theme and is about the size of a small studio apartment. There is also a Main Car, which serves as the bed-and-breakfast's dining room and has books, DVDs and games.

From 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. April 29, enthusiasts are encouraged to traverse up the Wright Trail on Mount Konociti, as part of the Worldwide Healing Hands annual fundraiser for health care missions serving homeless and poverty-stricken people in Lake County and across the globe. Year-round, WHH conducts free health screenings in the Lake County region, while around the world, it works to bring modern medical expertise, obstetrical care and medicines to impoverished countries like Uganda, Chad, Nepal and Haiti.
